OPEN FIGHT FOR CALIFORNIA

WASHINGTON, November 28.—R. B. Hale is here prepared to direct San Francisco's fight for the Panama Exposition. He is conferring with Senator Flint, Colvin Brown, William R. Wheeler and Franklin K. Lane, and the plans are being thoroughly threshed out.

Dispatches in this evening's papers tell of the coming of others of the delegation from San Francisco.

Congressman Julius Kahn arrived tonight from St. Louis, where he has been attending the Lakes to Gulf Congress.

The Californians are proceeding with their campaign in a quiet, businesslike manner, making a decidedly good impression, and falling the expectations of those who looked for noisy wine-opening procedure. Washington is being denied so provincial a method of making an appeal to Congress. Colvin Brown has tabbed liquor from the headquarters. Cordiality and persuasion greet the visitor instead, and in every way is San Francisco making a dignified fight, the only kind that counts.

GREAT BRITAIN'S BIG STRUGGLE

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Among the first of its members to be elected unopposed will be Arthur J. Balfour, the opposition leader, the Liberals having decided not to contest his seat for London. On the Stock Exchange, where regular dealings have been instituted in bets on the elections, the feeling today seemed to anticipate a reduction in the Liberal majority.

Fiery Words at Meeting.

Lord Londonderry declared that the American dollars enabled John Redmond to hold Asquith in the hollow of his hand. If a home rule Parliament were established, he said, it might be found that Ulster would utterly decline obedience to the law. Sir Edward Carson, formerly solicitor General and Conservative M. P. for Dublin University, said they never would consent to their country being sold for American dollars. Walter Hume Long, Unionist M. P. for Strand, spoke in the same strain, and other speakers advocated stern resistance to the law if home rule were forced upon Ulster.

The first independent woman suffrage candidate is announced in the person of William Mirroos, who will contest a division of Glasgow. The Socialist party has decided to run a third candidate in Battersea, thus seriously endangering John Burns' chance of re-election.

Crisis Most Important.

Today's dissolution of Parliament brings to a crisis the supreme struggle now in progress to limit the legislative powers of the House of Lords and thereby permit the elective branch of Parliament, the House of Commons to exert larger powers in effecting legislation, more particularly measures relating to Irish home rule and the financial budgets.

The present House of Commons has a ministerial majority of 124, and the present standing of the various elements is as follows: Liberals, 275; Labor members, 40; Nationalists, 71; Independent Nationalists, 11; Unionists, 273.

Of the foregoing the first four groups are generally counted as supporters of the Ministry, giving a Ministerial strength of 397, as against the Unionist strength of 273.

The last general election followed the dissolution of January 10th last. Prior to that the Ministerial majority was 334. The former dissolution was also based on the issue of the House of Lords, Premier Asquith having introduced a resolution declaring that the refusal of the Lords to enact the financial budget passed by the Commons had constituted a "breach of the Constitution and a usurpation of the rights of the Commons."
